Section A: Reading

Q1. Read the following passage and answer the questions that follows:

During the spring break, Aarav visited his aunt who lives near a forest reserve. Every morning, he would wake up to the chirping of birds and the rustling of leaves. One day, his aunt took him on a guided nature walk through the reserve. They spotted deer grazing quietly, squirrels jumping between branches, and even a rare bird building its nest. Aarav listened carefully as the guide explained how important it is to protect forests. He was surprised to learn that even small actions like planting a tree or avoiding plastic could help the environment. Aarav returned home inspired to care for nature.

Multiple Choice Questions
